The Fayette County Republican Committee has forwarded a protest to the State Election Commission against the action of the two Democrats on the Fayette county board in the appointment of election officers and asking that they be removed.

Nease and Reagan, the commissioners complained of, have sent a letter to the State Commission demanding their action.

The Long Distance Telephone rate between this city and Cincinnati is 45 cents for a three minutes talk. If you want to talk Admiral Dewey how sorry you are that you can't be in New York to see him, and give him a lot of "rady" spread over three minutes, it will cost you $1.50 in daylight or $1.00 at night.

But then it sometimes costs a good deal more than that for three minutes talk. In fact, the electric word "rady" has cost many a man a much larger sum.

Mr. Alfred Forman, formerly of this county, has filed suit at Lagrange for $25,000 damages against a number of prominent citizens of Louisville and Pewee Valley for defamation of character. It will be remembered that some time since Forman assaulted the Rev. Douglas Fortney, a pastor at his hotel. The citizens held mass meetings to condemn the attack and asked Forman to leave the community. Forman claims the action of the citizens injured his character and his business, hence the suit.

REGISTER TUESDAY.
Don't Forget to Do So If You Want to Vote in November.

Tuesday, October 31, is the day provided for the registration of citizens of Maysville who desire to vote at the coming November election.

The polls will be open continuously from 8 a. m. till 8 p. m.

It is highly important that every voter should get his name on the list as early as possible so as to be sure that his vote will be counted in November.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.
Mr. Albert J. Shepard and Miss Alta E. Stockdale United.

The marriage of Mr. Albert J. Shepard and Miss Alta E. Stockdale was a surprise to the many friends of the young people.

The happy event occurred last evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. F. W. Harp of the M. E. Church, only relatives and a few near friends being present.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shepard, and the bride the youngest daughter of Mr. W. A. Stockdale.

Two families join their many friends in wishing them a happy and successful voyage on the ocean of life.

There was a strange coincidence in connection with the death of Captain J. Potts, as the result of falling down the steps of his steamer, the Haywood. Within two days his $5,000 accident insurance policy would have expired, when it occurred. He was buried Wednesday morning.

For years the noble life of Captain W. B. Cole has been threatened with stomach and liver troubles, which kept him confined to his home, 53 Front street, Covington. He is not expected to live until next week. During the fifty years of his river career he has been taken by any of his boats, nor did any death occur on them. Captain Cole built the steamer Hobart Potts, and owns both and owned the Jim Watson, Clipper, Tom Farrow and the Al McDonald. The former boat was wrecked in the Government service during the Civil War. His steamers also towed the stone which was used in the building of the Suspension Bridge and the Chicago Postoffice to Cincinnati from Buena Vista, O. Flatboats were also built at Bona, O., by him for the Government and made such a reputation as a member of the Manchester (I.) Lodge of Masons and was formerly President of the Cole & Collins Towing Company for many years.

White's Cream Vermorel is perfectly harmless and will remove every worm. It is also a tonic, and by its strengthening properties restores to pale cheeks the rosy hue of health. Price 25 cts. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Twice Married and Once Divorced. But Second Legal Separation Wanted.

A suit has been filed in the Mason Circuit Court by Mrs. Martha A. Reynolds asking for a divorce from her husband, George D. Reynolds.

The filing of the petition renders a mixed state of affairs.

The plaintiff was the widow of Mr. John Gillespie.

On February 11th, 1888, she was married at Newport to Mr. Reynolds.

In February, 1888, on his petition, they were divorced.

In July, 1891, they were re-married in this city.

Mrs. Reynolds now asks for a divorce and to be restored to her widowed name, Martha A. Gillespie.

Postal matters are quite out of joint at the Cincinnati end of the line. Both yesterday and the day before the mail due here on train is at 10:00 a. m. did not arrive until 2:30 a. m. This has been occasioned by the non-arrival of C. and O. train No. 1 at Cincinnati, which carries the mail car.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, But Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—Read His Editorial.

From the Times, Hillsdale, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await death, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and seeing some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses it was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life—O. H. Mount, Editor.

J. James Wood & Son, Druggists.

J GENTLEMEN sojourning in Brooklyn some years ago, on a Sabbath morning, to the late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher preach. He asked a little teacher on the street to direct him to Mr. Beecher's Church. The little fellow said: "Mister, do you see that crowd?" "I do," answered the gentleman. "Well, Mister, follow it and you'll get there."

If you want the best in Clothing!

Furnishing Goods, Men's and Boys' SHOES!

Follow the crowd and you'll land in the right place. Were it not that we are awfully bashful we would tell you of the compliments showered upon us by the many who have looked over our stock.

Our windows to some extent give you an idea what we have in stock. In passing our house take a peep; you will see stuff that will interest you.

We are sometimes asked, "Do people read and believe your advertisements?" Well, if you would have looked in on us in the past ten days (since the weather turned cold) you would have concluded that our advertisements and our merchandise are credited, for notwithstanding we employ more salesmen than all the other clothing houses in Maysville combined we were unable to wait on everybody.

Others, we want you to see our

Children's Reefers

—AND—

Top Coats.

They are very attractive and moderately priced.
